Subject: Request for information

Hi Julie,

I received a phone call from an Anthony Naro. He said he was a student attorney with the public defender's office and he was requesting some statistics regarding drug analysis from our lab. I told him to put his request in writing and send it to you. He wanted to e-mail you, but I didn't want to give it to him so I gave him your fax number. From time to time we get requests like this, and sometimes the requestors are not forthcoming about who they really are and how they are going to use the information. If you decide to give him the information, I can compile it.
